

The Benefits of Business Process Automation: Hear from Your Peers

Have you been wondering just how much your organization could benefit from business process automation? We invite you to hear from your peers! Banks and credit unions, who were recently asking themselves the same question, touch on cost savings, enhanced accountholder and staff experiences, and renewed strategic focus.

SAVE ON UNNECESSARY COSTS

“Don’t wait. Get [Jack Henry’s] jhaEnterprise Workflow as soon as you can and start testing and using it – it can save on buying a lot of software you don’t need.” Read more

– CAL STEVENS | Vice President & Business Process Improvement Manager, Extraco Bank

“Since creating a pay-by-phone workflow with jhaEnterprise Workflow, we’ve averaged 969 phone loan payments a month and cut the average transaction time down to about five minutes. We were also able to eliminate a third-party vendor, which will save us $8,400 a year!” Read more

– BRIAN FISHER | Business Systems Manager, CAMPUS USA Credit Union

PROTECT & SERVE YOUR ACCOUNTHOLDERS

“[jhaEnterprise Workflow] reduced suspicious account restriction procedures from 10-15 minutes to approximately one minute.” Read more

– CINDY VELA | Assistant Vice President of Electronic Services & Development, One Nevada Credit Union

“The ability to control your processes – and getting those processes so they’re consistent every single time – that’s huge. [jhaEnterprise Workflow] has allowed us to better serve our customers.” Read more

– PENNY CAMACHO | Workflow Business Analyst, Peoples Security Bank & Trust

FREE UP YOUR STAFF

“I feel like one of the biggest things that frees up employees is the time saved from looking up procedures for random tasks. This has also decreased the time spent making corrections for human errors.” Read more

– BRENT MOINET | Project Coordinator, Isabella Bank Corporation

“For many of the workflows, the [accountholder] just enters account numbers and the workflow does everything else.” Read more

– AMANDA HODNEFIELD | Business Analyst, First Premier Bank

FOCUS ON STRATEGY

"We currently have 17 [jhaEnterprise Workflow] workflows and are still adding more. The Accounts Payable workflow has improved tracking, automated manager approvals, and streamlined the entire process from scanning to payment. Many back-office processes can now be picked up by any user on the team to complete tasks consistently and we have an electronic history of what happens with each activity." Read more

– DARRIN MCLAUGHLIN | Director of Strategic Execution, SELCO Community Credit Union

"jhaEnterprise Workflow has played a critical role in achieving the bank's strategic plan that focuses on efficiency and productivity. The versatility and interoperability of jhaEnterprise Workflow has allowed us to streamline and automate tasks that were once manual, thus reducing errors and ensuring consistency in processes."

– MATT RITTER | Chief Operating Officer, Clear Lake Bank & Trust
